2.6.4: Presence and periodicity of parent-teachers meetings, remedial measures undertaken and outcome analysis

1. The institution organizes a gathering for parents, teachers, and students, particularly following the first-year admission procedure. The meeting is attended by the principal, all department heads, parents, and students.

2. The meeting will consist of a presentation and a discussion covering the following subjects. Available amenities and academic fields at the college. The components of the course, including the curriculum, the topics to be taught, and the assessments.

The Heads of Departments acquaint the newcomers with their respective subjects.

1. Parents visit the student's departments as necessary for the remainder of the year. The staff keeps the parents informed on their children's development in terms of academics, behavior, health, hostel facilities, and meals.

2. The staff engages in a telephone chat with the parent to discuss several matters such as academic success, intelligence, conduct, student attendance, health concerns, communication abilities, hostel facilities, dining arrangements, and overall student performance.

3. Amidst the worldwide COVID-19 pandemic, the college has actively collaborated with both parents and students. Zoom sessions were scheduled with the parents of each academic year to guarantee that the whole curriculum of the pupils would be covered via online means.

Whenever my parents visit the college, they make sure to visit the department and engage in talks with the lecturers.

5. Each of our departments keeps a record of parental visits. Whenever a parent arrives, they consistently leave a written note in a register. Even after the telephone talk, a record is maintained in the register.

6. The parents are welcome to attend the Cultural Programme and participate in different camps organized by our institution.

7. The parents feel confident in the institution's commitment to growing their children into responsible members of society. The staff members have developed a really effective interaction with the parents.
