4.3.2: Total number of textbooks, reference volumes, journals, collection of rare books, manuscripts, Digitalized traditional manuscripts, Discipline-specific learning resources from ancient Indian languages, special reports or any other knowledge resource for library enrichment

The college library aims to enhance its materials in order to facilitate the intellectual development of students and teachers.

The library is conceived as a well curated assemblage of knowledge sources. The rare and significant books are systematically gathered and maintained separately to provide simple access for both faculty and students.

The special reports are gathered, conserved from many sources, and provided to the student community and staff members to enhance their understanding. Various newspapers in diverse languages are accessible to faculty, students, and staff for perusing daily news and current events.
