Description	The Principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. A measurement of accomplishment, Justice and opportunity in education is called educational equity, sometimes known as equality in education. The study of excellence and equity is often related to the study of educational equality. Equity in education is influenced by two key elements. The first is fairness which suggests that circumstances unique to a person's particular circumstances should not get in the way of their potential for academic achievement. The second element is inclusion, which is a complete norm that all students in certain educational systems must meet. These two elements are interdependent and strongly tied to the effectiveness of the educational system. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and guest was felicitated with a momentum.

Coordinators	Dr. Monika Ambekar
Description	The Principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handed over to the speaker. Gender sensitization is the process of educating gender sensitivity and encouraging behavior transformation by bringing up issues related to the gender equality. In other words, it is the process of educating individuals on the need of eradicating gender discrimination and gender equality. It entails comprehending and combating current gender roles, prejudices, and bias in society today. A more equitable and fair society without gender based discriminations is what gender sensitization tries to achieve. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and guest was felicitated with a momentum.
